Boost Senior Wellness with Vitamin E

Formulations for aging population require precise nutrient support to maintain vitality, cardiovascular health, and cognitive function. Vitamin E is a key ingredient in these senior-focused products, delivering antioxidant protection and overall cellular support.

At BTSA, we offer NUTRABIOL® E, a high-purity natural Vitamin E (d- α -tocopherol) tailored for senior-focused nutraceuticals. It delivers strong bioavailability, oxidative protection, and formulation flexibility for capsules, softgels, tablets, beverages, and fortified foods, helping manufacturers create stable, compliant, science-based products for mature adults.
