Ensuring Stability in Oil-Based Formats

The nutraceutical market is rapidly growing, with oil-based formats like softgels and liquid capsules increasing in demand due to their high bioavailability. However, these systems are highly prone to lipid oxidation, affecting product stability and shelf life.

At BTSA, we offer Nutrabiol®, a natural tocopherol-based solution designed to protect oil-based formulations. It effectively prevents lipid oxidation, helping maintain product quality, stability, and shelf life in applications such as softgels, liquid capsules, and functional oils.

Nutrabiol®

reliable & versatile performance

- Extends shelf life
- Protects sensitive oils
- Prevents oxidation
- Preserves quality
- Clean label solution
