Tocobiol[®] RS: Cost-Effective Soy Alternative

Rapeseed-derived tocopherols provide a high-quality, non-soy source of natural vitamin E for food applications. This sustainable plant-based alternative supports clean-label formulations and supply chain diversification.

At BTSA, we offer Tocobiol[®] RS, a natural tocopherol solution obtained via gentle distillation from rapeseed.

It delivers consistent antioxidant performance as a soy-free alternative to conventional tocopherol sources, effectively protecting oils and fats against oxidation and supporting extended shelf life.
